You're In Good Company

Marketing Essentials. Simple. Scalable. Essential.

You have about 1,000 things to get done and those online ads aren't going to plan, conceptualize and design themselves. But what if they could? Market Grid enters stage right. "Have no fear! Market Grid is here!" Don't worry. We got this.

- 01 A Dedicated, Professional Marketing Specialist
- 02 Unlimited Requests and Revisions
- 03 Ridiculously Fast Turnarounds
- 04 Easy and Streamlined Communication
- 05 World Class Customer Support

A Dedicated, Professional Marketer

We match you with a marketing specialist who knows you by name and understands your brand, your needs and seamlessly plugs into your creative eco system.

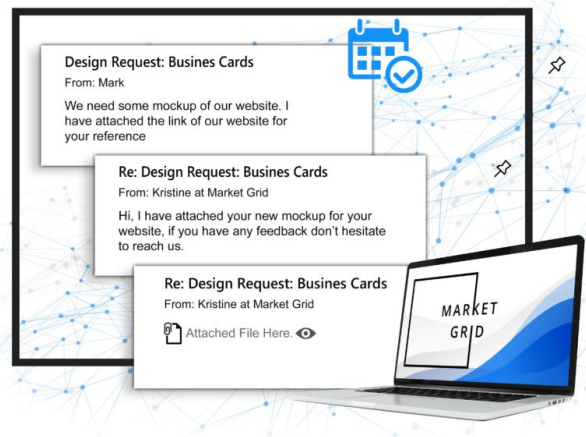

Unlimited Requests and Revisions

With Market Grid you can request as many concept plans as needed — even if you've already submitted 100. Plus with unlimited revisions, we'll keep revising until it's perfect.

Ridiculously Fast Turnarounds

You want your marketing collateral, ads, and other graphic images created in days, not weeks. With Market Grid, turnaround time for most requests is just five business days for our Essentials Plan and Even Faster times with Dedicated Pro Staffing plans.

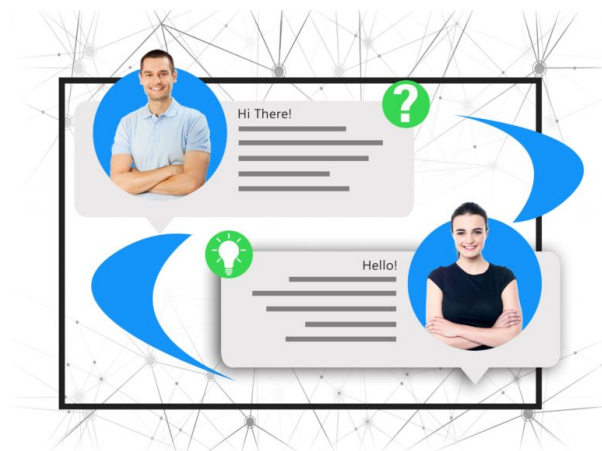

Easy and Streamlined Communication

The intuitive Market Grid platform offers a streamlined way to request plans and communicate revisions. You can also connect Market grid with the apps you already love using our Zapier integration.

World Class Customer Support

Our support team is friendly, personable, and always available to help. You can expect a real human to answer your support questions within two hours.

How Does It Work? It's Simple.

01 Tell us what you need.

Maybe don't use a megaphone, but you can submit a request using our custom software, by email, or other apps via Zapier.

02 Your marketing specialist gets to work.

Our team will review your request and then your super talented and awesome marketer will begin working on your request.

03 Receive your amazing case study.

Receive your case study and all files necessary, take a moment to do a happy dance, and reply with revisions if needed. That's it!
